Industries Served

Business

Businesses, from family-owned to publicly-traded, rely on us to capitalize on opportunities and meet challenges in the global marketplace and local communities. We help businesses reach out to an increasingly diverse audience of customers, employees, and shareholders around the world.

Education

We provide accurate translations of educational documents and interpreting services for students, parents, and education officials. We work with local, regional and federal entities, for-profit and non-profit organizations, and educational institutions from K-12 to higher learning.

Financial / Insurance

For more than 30 years, we continue to provide global services to financial and insurance services, including accounting, asset management, commercial banking, consumer banking, insurance, investment banking, lending and securities, real estate and mortgages, and valuation and forensic services.

Government / Municipalities

We partner with municipalities, townships, cities, national security agencies among others, to deliver critical information to an increasingly diverse population. As a Minority and Women Business Enterprise certified in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, we serve government offices and government contractors to translate brochures, correspondence, forms, legal documents, marketing and recruitment materials, regulations, tax information, tourism and visitors bureau documents, and more.

Healthcare

Our highly trained medical translators and interpreters are skilled in both the science and practice of medicine. Serving healthcare providers, pharmaceutical companies and hospitals, we have the experience and expertise to assist with patient / healthcare provider conversations, medical documents, letters to patients, consent forms, treatment and patient care, PPI’s, aftercare patient instruction information, marketing materials, patient education materials, and more.

Legal

We offer certified translation and interpretation services to legal, criminal justice, and law enforcement entities. Many of our professionals have worked in federal and municipal courts and are field certified in law. We work with the Justice Department and other legal organizations to provide services for client / witness interviews and statements, court hearings and pleadings, depositions, evidence, expert witness reports and testimony, legal and law enforcement documents, telephone conversations, trials and wire taps.

Legal Services

With more than 30 years of experience as a premiere language service company, Para-Plus Translations offers global translation and interpretation services to the criminal justice system, law enforcement and law firms to reduce disparities and inequalities.

We provide accurate, certified interpretations of legal proceedings, and offer consecutive or simultaneous interpreting, and translations for:

- Client/Witness Interviews & Statements
- Court Hearings
- Court Pleadings
- Depositions
- Evidence
- Expert Witness Reports & Testimony
- Legal & Law Enforcement Documents
- Transcriptions
- Trials
